PAWTUCKET HALL OF FAME INDUCTEES NAMED BY COMMITTEE

The Pawtucket Hall of Fame Committee announced today that the four newest members of the Pawtucket Hall of Fame will be honored at a dinner at Corrine's Restaurant, Garrity St., Pawtucket, RI on Friday, October 16, 2009 at 7:00 p.m. Decorated WW II war veteran and former Pawtucket Police Officer James Brennan, former NHL player and Olympian Keith Carney, former Pawtucket Police Officer and RI Registry Official Ted Dolan were selected by the committee for the induction.

In addition, this year's historical induction will be Chief Samuel Collyer – Pawtucket's first fire chief.

According to Ken McGill, Chair of the committee, "The Pawtucket Hall of Fame Committee looks for our cities best to induct each year. Once again the committee has made an outstanding choice in this year's inductees. The committee once again had many nominees to choose from and they did their homework and picked those who they feel have gone above and beyond improving the quality of life for all our residents."

Tickets for the Induction Ceremony can be obtained by calling Chairman McGill at 722-1637. Tickets are limited and will not be sold after 10/2/2009.
